

ALDA Boston – P.O. Box 600622 – Newtonville, MA 02460

Website: www.aldaboston.org

ALDAgram – July 2019

The weather was perfect for the ALDA Boston 4th of July picnic last Saturday. Many, many thanks to Ellen and Jay Perkins for another wonderful event and to all those who helped Ellen and Jay, especially Betty Saltzman, who volunteered to purchase the food. We ALDAns love desserts, and based on all the choices we have some talented bakers. Jay did a great job with the burgers and hot dogs that were eaten with gusto. Many thanks to Betty Hauck for the music and to Betsy Shearer & Carol Agate for the photos.

Congratulations

To Karen Peebles on the marriage of her son Justin to Rachel Gilbert on July 6, at the Trapp Family Lodge in Stowe, Vermont. The couple will live in Gainesville, Florida, while Rachel attends the University of Florida for her medical degree. Justin is a freelance photographer/videographer. His website is justinkeefe.com. The wedding in Vermont gave Karen and other ALDA friends a chance to see and stay with Karen Rockow at Northcove Cottages.

To Caitlin Parton on her appointment and to Linda Sakin on her reappointment to the Statewide Advisory Council for the Massachusetts Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing.

To Peter Saltzman on his 80th birthday.

Sending healing thoughts and wishes to Eleanor Shafer

Museum of Fine Arts Accessible Guided Tours

There will be no tour in August. The next tour will be on Saturday, September 21.

Accessible Theater – July, August, September

American Repertory Theater, Cambridge

Purchase your tickets for Open Captioned and ASL Interpreted performances via phone at 617-547-8300, in person at our Ticket Services Office, or by email at access@amrep.org and let the customer service representative know which performances you are interested in. Ticket Services hours are Tuesday – Sunday, noon – 5PM or until 1/2 hour prior to curtain.

Six

Open Captioned: Thursday, September 12 at 7:30 and Saturday, September 14 at 2 pm

Huntington Theater, Boston

Tickets are $20 for each patron with slight to profound hearing loss. To reserve tickets, please contact Interim Co-Director of Education Meg O'Brien at 617-273-1558 or email mobrien@huntingontheatre.org

The Purists

ASL Interpreted: Friday, September 27 at 8 pm

Boston Opera House, Boston

For more information, go to: <https://www.bostonoperahouse.com/accessibility/>

Dear Evan Hansen

Open Captioned: Saturday, July 27 at 2 pm

ASL Interpreted: Saturday, August 3 at 2 pm

Hello Dolly

Open Captioned: Saturday, July 27 at 2 pm

ASL Interpreted: Saturday, August 3 at 2 pm

New Repertory Theatre, Watertown

New Rep has been selected for the Theatre Development Fund's Open Captioning grant. Six performances with open captioning will be available for the coming season. All performances will be on Saturdays at 3pm.

Nixon's Nixon - September 28th

Trayf - October 26th

Oliver! - December 14th

Hair - February 8th

Lady Day at the Emerson Bar & Grill - April 11th

August Wilson's Fences - May 9th

25 seats will be reserved in the front of the side section with the best view of the open caption system for those who are part of the Deaf/Hard of Hearing community. When you make a reservation, just make sure to mention that you'd like to take advantage of that service, and the box office will make sure to give you priority for those seats."

Remember that all performances in the Mainstage theater are looped and there is a discount for HLAA and ALDA members.

 <http://aldaboston.org>

 Like us on Facebook

ALDA Boston does not endorse any product or services.